Kalahari Resorts & Conventions in Round Rock Hosts Fourth Annual Resort-Wide Food & (Not Just) Wine Festival

Culinary festival to feature chef demonstrations, food tastings, drinks from local and national brands and award-winning entertainment.

WHAT:

Kalahari Resorts & Conventions in Round Rock is excited to host its fourth annual Food & (Not Just) Wine Festival on Sunday, May 4th, 2025, featuring the theme 'Tides, Tastes, & Tunes'.

During the resort-wide festival, Kalahari Resorts will transform into an immersive culinary experience with a vibrant island theme. Eventgoers will enjoy chef demonstrations, food tastings from Kalahari's culinary experts, drink samples from local and nationally beloved brands and award-winning entertainment.

This year, guests will be transported to an island paradise and indulge in 100+ signature Kalahari restaurants, bar offerings and other craft artisans including permanent jewelry, custom hats, and more. Dining experiences will include multiple on-site restaurants, like Sortino's Italian Kitchen, B-Lux Burgers & Shakes, Double Cut Steak House and Cinco Niños.

Beyond food and drinks, the festival will fully embrace the island theme with an exciting entertainment lineup, including Jimmy Buffett cover bands, steel drum performances and stilt walkers.

General admission tickets can be purchased for $149 per person, and for those looking to maximize their culinary experience, VIP access is available for $189 per person and includes event access, a souvenir wine glass, complimentary valet, a meet & greet brunch with Kalahari chefs, priority seating for cooking demonstrations and behind-the-scenes kitchen tours. For those looking to stay, overnight packages are available with savings on your Food & (Not Just) Wine Festival tickets.
