Kalahari Resorts and Conventions in Round Rock, Texas, Announces Inaugural Food & Wine Festival
Culinary event to feature tastings from Kalahari's signature restaurants and Texas' best local wineries, distilleries, and craft breweries

WHAT: Kalahari Resorts and Conventions in Round Rock, Texas, home to America's Largest Indoor Waterparks, recently announced their inaugural Food & Wine Festival. This culinary celebration will take place on Sunday, Nov. 20, 2022, from 12-4 p.m. and will feature fare from Kalahari's signature dining options, sips of locally sourced wine, beer and artisanal spirits, and live entertainment.

Additionally, Michelin Star Chef, Top Chef Alum and Texas' own John Tesar will make an appearance at the festival and prepare a special tasting.

"The owners and founders of Kalahari Resorts, the Nelson Family, have a true love, passion and commitment to culinary excellence in all four of their resorts," said Brandon Wise, assistant general manager, Kalahari Resorts and Conventions in Round Rock and lead organizer of the event. "The Food & Wine Festival further demonstrates that we take food seriously and opens up the opportunity to taste all we have to offer to the people in the Austin metro [area]."

Tickets to the Food & Wine Festival are $75 per person and include a "tasting passport" good for cuisine at Kalahari's signature restaurants, beverages from over 40 of Texas' best wineries, distilleries and craft breweries, live music throughout the resort and a souvenir wine glass. Guests must be over 21 years of age to attend the event.

"Everyone will enjoy this festival, from those with the most discerning palate to folks simply looking for a fun day out," Wise continued. "Guests will enjoy everything from handmade burgers at B-Lux to premium steaks at Double Cut and pastries at Last Bite."
