Round Rock, Texas – September 19, 2023 – New culinary experiences await at your next trip to America’s Largest Indoor Waterpark. Kalahari Resorts and Conventions, recently announced the expansion of their culinary offerings at Kalahari’s Double Cut® Steak House in Round Rock, Texas, with the addition of an all-new sushi menu set to launch in September 2023.

With over 20 years of culinary experience, including a tenure at a 3-star Michelin-Awarded restaurant, Chef Andrew Kamrai leads the sushi creation and guest experience. The menu features unique options such as a flavorful Godfather roll, an explosive volcano roll and a signature Double Cut roll with shrimp tempura, asparagus, avocado, filet mignon, eel sauce, spicy mayo and crunchy tempura. For those seeking classic favorites, the menu also offers choices like the beloved California or spicy tuna roll.

“Prepare your taste buds for an unforgettable journey as you step into Double Cut to savor these authentic additions to our culinary repertoire,” said Chef Kamrai. “We have poured our heart and soul into creating a dining experience that combines culinary excellence and elegant ambience and now we are captivating guests with our passion for Japanese cuisine. We can’t wait to welcome guests and introduce them to the world of sushi.”

New cuisine isn’t the only thing Double Cut brings to the table. Small group and private dining options are available to fit any occasion for guests. Additionally, the restaurant offers a strong lineup of local performers to add a flare of entertainment to the dining experience.

The culinary adventure at Kalahari Resorts in Round Rock offers an impressive selection of 20 dining options, including mouth-watering Italian and Tex-Mex, a buffet experience and some quick-bite options. The addition of sushi to Double Cut Steak House is part of the resort’s ongoing mission to deliver beyond-expectations experiences to our guests.
